"They were the two best of us that cheated Harry Jordan, and they weren't vindictive. They even seemed to be trying to help me a little, though perhaps they were only stealing my clothes, and maybe they thought for them to do anything unpleasant would be superfluous. I could see that they thought I was done for and that they had been hiding in the car when I was put there. I asked them to try to call the trainmen for me, but they wouldn't listen or else I couldn't make myself understood. That's all. The rest is a blur. I haven't known anything more until those surgeons were here. Please tell me how long ago it happened. I shall not die, I think. There are a good many things I want to know about." He moved restlessly, and the nurse soothed him.

Meredith rose and left the room with a noiseless step. He went out to the stars again and looked to them to check the storm of rage and sorrow that buffeted his bosom. He understood lynching, now the thing was home to him, and his feeling was no inspiration of a fear lest the law miscarry. It was the itch to get his own hand on the rope. Horner came out presently and whispered a long, broad, profound curse upon the men of the Crossroads, and Meredith's gratitude to him was keen. Barrett went away soon after, and Meredith had a strange, unreasonable desire to kick Barrett, possibly for his sergeant's sake. Warren Smith sat in the ward with the nurse and Gay, and the room was very quiet. It was a long vigil. They were only waiting.

At 5 o'clock he was still alive—just that. Smith came out to say. Meredith sent a telegram to Helen which would give Plattville the news that Harkless was found and was not yet gone from there. Horner left for the station to catch a train. There were things for him to do in Carlow. At noon Meredith sent a second telegram to Helen as barren of detail as the first. He was alive; was a little improved. But this telegram did not reach her, for she was on the way to Rouen, and half of the population of Carlow—at least so it seemed to the unhappy conductor of the accommodation—was with her.

They seemed to feel that they could camp in the hospital halls and corridors, and they were an incalculable worry to the authorities. More came on every train, and nearly all brought flowers and jelly and chickens for pre-

Many a child has been fooled by the story of the pot of gold which is to be found just at the foot of the rainbow, and has started out to gather riches full of happy dreams. Many a man and woman have been deceived by the tale that there was health to be found out beyond the sunset, and they have started out dreaming of a healthful future, never to be realized.

People who have tried change of climate in vain for the cure of weak lungs have been perfectly and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures deep-seated coughs, bronchitis, bleeding lungs, emaciation, and other conditions which, if neglected or unskillfully treated, find a fatal end in consumption.

"Last spring I had a severe attack of pneumonia which left me with a very bad cough, and also left my lungs in a very bad condition," writes John M. Russell, Esq., of Brent, Cherokee Nat. Ind. Ty. "I had no appetite and was so weak I could scarcely walk. My breast was sore with running sores. I got two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which I believe saved my life. I cannot express my gratitude to you. I am able now to do very good work."

Any substitute offered as "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery" is a shadow of that medicine. There are cures behind every claim made for the "Discovery," which is not "just as good" medicine can show.

paring broth, and they insisted that the two latter delicacies be fed to the patient at once. They were still in ignorance of the truth about the Crossroads and spent the day (it was Sunday) partly in getting in the way of the attendants and partly in planning an assault upon the Rouen jail for the purpose of lynching Slattery in case Harkless' condition did not improve at once. Those who had heard his statement kept close mouths until the story appeared in full in the Rouen papers on Monday morning. But by that time every member of the Crossroads White Caps was lodged in the Rouen jail with Slattery. Horner and a heavily armed posse rode over to the muddy corners on Sunday night, and the sheriff discovered that no slight have taken the Stillets and Johnsons single handed and unarmed. Their nerve was gone. They were shaken and afraid, and, to employ a figure somewhat inappropriate to their sullen, glad surrender, they fell upon his neck in their relief at finding the law touching them. They had no wish to hear "John Brown's Body" again. They wanted to get inside of a strong jail and to throw themselves on the mercy of the court as soon as possible. And those whom Harkless had not recognized made no delay in giving themselves up. They did not wish to remain in Six Crossroads. Bob Skillet, Force Johnson and one or two others needed the care of a physician badly, and one man was suffering from a severely wrenched back. Horner had a train stopped at a crossing so that his prisoners need not be taken through Plattville, and he brought them all safely to Rouen.

It took nearly a week to persuade the people of Plattville that it was better for them to go home, and it was only the confidence inspired by the manner of the two eminent surgeons (they lay in wait at all hours to interview these gentlemen) that did persuade them to return—this and the promise of two daily bulletins.

As many of them said on their return, Plattville didn't "feel like the same place," and a strange thing had happened—for the first time in five years the Carlow County Herald missed fire altogether. Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday passed. Mr. Fishbee only sat staring out of the dingy office windows with Parker in a demented silence. There was no Herald; there was no one to get it out.

In the Rouen hospital John Harkless feebly moved on his bed of pain. His constant delusion was that the universe was a vast, white heated brass bell and he a point at the center of it, listening, listening for years, to the brazen hum it gave off and burning in hot waves of sound.

Finally he came to what he would have considered a lucid interval had it not appeared that Helen Sherwood was whispering to Tom Meredith at the foot of his bed. This he knew to be a fictitious presentation of his fever, for was she not by this time away and away for foreign lands? And also Tom Meredith was a slim young thing and not a middle aged youth with an undeniable stomach and a baldish head who by the preposterous necromancy of fever assumed a grotesque likeness of his old friend. He waved his hand to the figures, and they vanished like figments of a dream; but, all the same, the vision had been realistic enough for the lady to look exquisitely pretty. No one could help wishing to stay in a world which contained as charming a picture as that.

But the next night Meredith waited near his bedside, haggard and disheveled. Harkless had been lying in a long stupor. Suddenly he spoke, quite loudly, and the young surgeon, Gay, who leaned over him, remembered the words and the tone all his life.

"Away—and away—across the waters," said John Harkless. "She was here—once—in June."

"What is it, John?" whispered Meredith huskily. "You're feeling easier, aren't you?"

And John smiled a little, as if, for the moment, he saw and knew his old friend again.

That same night a friend of Rodney McCune's sent a telegram from Rouen: "He is dying. His paper is dead. Your name goes before convention in September."

Nobody finds it more difficult to spare time for reading than the very idle, yet every woman in society religiously orders every new book from her library, even though she sends most of them back without having even cut the leaves. ## JAPS DRIVEN OFF

Another Attempt to Block
Port Arthur Proved Futile.

RUSSIANS WERE ACTIVE

Admiral Makaroff's Fighting Force
Was on the Alert and Japs
Were Repulsed.Merchant Vessels Intended to Act
as Barriers Were Driven Ashore.

St. Petersburg, March 28.—Sunday morning Vice Admiral Togo made another desperate attempt to bottle up the Russian fleet in Port Arthur, but he failed again, and when, after daylight, Vice Admiral Makaroff steamed out to give battle, the Japanese commander refused the challenge and sailed away.

The Japanese practically repeated the tactics of Feb. 24 by sending in four fresh ships, preceded by a torpedo boat flotilla, with the exception that the fresh ships this time were armed with Hotchkiss guns for the purpose of keeping off the Russian torpedo boat destroyers.

The enemy's attempt was discovered by means of the shore search lights, and a heavy fire was opened from the batteries and from two gunboats which were guarding the entrance to the harbor. The Russian torpedo boat destroyer Silni was outside on scouting duty, and to the dash and nerve of her commander, Lieutenant Kriniski, is chiefly due the complete defeat of the plans of the Japanese. He at once made straight for the oncoming ships under a hail of fire from the Hotchkiss guns and torpedoed the leading ship, which sheered off, followed by the others, three of them being piled up on the shore under Golden Hill and one under the lighthouse. The Silni then engaged the entire six torpedo boats of the enemy, coming out from a terrific fight with several killed and her commander wounded, but on the Japanese side only one boat's crew was saved.

In addition, according to unofficial reports, it is believed that Japan lost two torpedo boats. The Japanese cruisers which supported the attack exchanged shots with the batteries and then drew off, after which Vice Admiral Makaroff took a steam launch and examined the fresh ships. An hour later the Japanese torpedo flotilla, followed by Vice Admiral Togo's fleet, came up from a southerly direction. Just at daybreak Vice Admiral Makaroff with his fleet sailed out to engage the enemy, but after the ships and batteries had fired a few long distance shots, Vice Admiral Togo decided to decline the issue and disappeared to the southward.

The news of the repulse of Vice Admiral Togo's second attempt to block Port Arthur created much rejoicing in the Russian capital, and among all classes the gallantry of the Silni and her commander is the subject of high praise; but above all the moral effect of Vice Admiral Makaroff's willingness to engage the enemy showed that he considered himself strong enough to fight, produced a splendid impression.

In high official circles this new effort to bottle up the Russian fleet is looked upon as meaning only one thing, namely, that the Japanese are preparing for a heavy landing of troops in the gulf of Liao Tung, either at New Chwang or on the west coast of the Manchurian neutral zone to effect which in safety the immobility of Vice Admiral Makaroff's fleet is absolutely essential while the transports are being conveyed around the southern end of the peninsula. If the attempt had succeeded it would have required several days at least to blow up the steamers and clear away the wreckage, during which time the Japanese would be assured of non-interference in the carrying out of their purpose. The failure of the Japanese may seriously hamper their plans, as the ice in the Lio river is going out and when the river is free from ice its mouth can be easily mined.

The convictions continue to grow here that the Japanese have concluded that it would be inadvisable to make a direct frontal attack on Manchuria from Korea against the whole Russian army and that it will be necessary to land a flanking column in the gulf of Liao Tung to divide the attention of the Russians and, if possible, to seize the railroad and cut off Port Arthur. The ground above New Chwang is perfectly familiar to the Japanese who occupied it for a year during the Chino-Japanese war.

It is stated on apparently reliable authority that Vice Admiral Makaroff's reports of the reconnaissance of the Elliot Islands yesterday, contained the startling statement that he captured a junk filled with Chinese regular troops which was being towed by a Japanese gunboat.

HARBOR REMAINS CLEAR

Russian Activity Frustrates Design of the Japs.

St. Petersburg, March 28.—An official dispatch from Port Arthur to the emperor says that at 1 o'clock Sunday morning the Russian searchlights disclosed four large merchant steamers making for the entrance to the harbor, supported by six torpedo boats. A heavy fire was opened on them by the batteries and some warships.

The torpedo boat Stini, commanded by Lieut. Kriniski, turned the merchant vessels from their course by blowing up the prow of the first and then boldly attacked the enemy's torpedo boats. In the fierce fight which followed, Chief Engineer Swyreff of the Stini and six marines were killed and the commander and twelve men were injured.

The Japanese plan to block up the entrance to Port Arthur was frustrated, however, and the channel is still clear.

Vice Admiral Makaroff, commanding the Russian naval forces at Port Arthur, has sent the following telegram to the emperor: "I beg most humbly to report that at 2 o'clock Sunday morning the enemy made a second attempt to block the entrance to the inner roadstead. For this purpose they dispatched four large merchant steamers, conveyed by six torpedo boats, to the entrance. The enemy's ships were promptly discovered by searchlights and were bombarded by the batteries and guardships Bohr and Otavny.

Fearing the enemy's ships might break through, Lieut. Kriniski, commanding the guard torpedo boat Stini, attacked the enemy and destroyed the bow of the foremost Japanese steamer with a torpedo. This steamer turned to the right and was followed by two others with the result that the three were stranded to the right of the entrance. A fourth steamer went to the right of the enemy's ships and likewise sank to the side of the Fairway. The Stini then battled with the enemy's six torpedo boats. Engineer Artificer Swyreff and six seamen were killed and the commander and twelve seamen were wounded.

At daybreak the enemy's battle-ship and cruiser squadrons appeared, and I proceeded with the fleet under my charge to meet the enemy, the Japanese drawing off to the southeast, evidently declining an engagement.

The second attempt of the Japanese to block the entrance to Port Arthur has failed, thanks to the energetic defence by the sea and land forces who acted as they did during the first attempt. The harbor remains perfectly clear."

FOOL YELLED "FIRE"

And a Score of Church Goers Were Hurt in Ensuing Panic.

New Haven, Conn., March 28.—A panic occurred at the morning service in St. Michael's Italian church here Sunday in which almost a score of persons were injured. Four of the most seriously injured, two women and two children, were taken to the New Haven hospital. Some one in the congregation shouted "fire" during a prayer, and immediately the worshippers arose and rushed for the door at the rear of the church, the only exit. Women and children were trampled upon and dragged along the floor by the others in their endeavor to get out of the building, and in the height of the confusion some one sent in a fire alarm. With great difficulty the firemen succeeded in forcing back the struggling mass that had become wedged in the doorway.

When the building was freed of people two women and two girls were found on the floor badly hurt. The injuries of the others were attended by ambulance surgeons and physicians. The police and members of the church have made an investigation, but no reason for an alarm of fire has been discovered.

Young Woman Burned to Death.

Detroit, Mich., March 28.—Miss Bertha Vanderkamp Green, daughter of a former prominent attorney of Syracuse, N. Y., was burned to death in her home on Woodward Terrace here Sunday. She had gone down into the basement before daylight, and it is supposed ignited her clothing with a match. She lived but a few hours. Miss Green was a grandniece of Horatio Seymour, the war governor of New York.

Stood on Notable Ground.

Athens, March 28.—Rev. John Potts, of Toronto, Ont., preached on the Hill of Mars Sunday to the delegates to the World's Sunday School convention. The ministers and delegates repeated St. Paul's address to the Athenians. All the members of the party from the United States are well and will proceed to Jerusalem where the meeting of the convention will be held.

A Disgrace to His Nationality.

Adelaide, Australia, March 28.—In consequence of a speech insulting King Edward, the government has refused the use of public buildings to John Alexander Dowie. The mayor of Adelaide wrote to Dowie telling him he was a disgrace to his nationality.

Town's Serious Loss.

Kittanning, Pa., March 28.—The business portion of East Brady, a town twenty-five miles north of here, was destroyed by fire Sunday. Dynamite was used to blow up buildings in the path of the flames and this doubtless saved the town from destruction.

Election Officers Arrested.

Havana, March 28.—Telegrams from Santiago de Cuba report that all the members of the provincial electoral board of scrutiny have been arrested on the charge of falsifying the results of the elections for congressmen.

THOUSANDS FLOODED

Grand Rapids Reports a Loss of Millions by High Water.

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 28.—Conditions in this city and nearby towns along the Grand river are very grave as a result of the unprecedented flood that has swollen the stream far out of its banks for the past three days. The river gauge here shows a depth of three feet above the previous high water record, that of 1844. The inhabitants of flooded houses are suffering greatly from cold and lack of food. There has been no loss of life thus far, but there is great suffering and a vast amount of sickness. It is feared will follow the exposure sustained by many of the flood victims. It is conservatively estimated that the loss to property and business on account of the flood will exceed $2,000,000. Fifteen thousand men are unable to work today owing to factories being compelled to close by the high water. Two thousand homes are flooded on the west side.

Michigan Flood Sufferers.

Saginaw, Mich., March 28.—The water continues to rise here, despite the cold. At the mouth of the Flint river, ice is piled sixty feet high. The Big Prairie farm at the junction of the Shiawassee and Flint rivers, is from four to six feet under water. One hundred thoroughbred cattle have been drowned and Gilbert Bertram, foreman of the farm, is dead from exposure in the flood. A large portion of the business district of Saginaw is flooded and thousands of dollars damage has been done. There has been no communication with Zilwaukee, four miles north, in two days, and 1,300 people there are reported to be living in the upper part of buildings and suffering from cold and lack of food.

Serious Loss at Peoria.

Peoria, Ill., March 28.—The Illinois river at this city has touched a point twenty-three feet above low water mark, the highest in the history of the city. In east Peoria and along the bottom lands great damage has been done, many houses having been submerged.

Heavy Damage by Flood.

Princeton, Ind., March 28.—The Wabash, White and Patoka rivers are rising very rapidly. The property loss has already reached $200,000 in southwestern Indiana. All trains are greatly delayed.

The Extent of His Interest.

"They say your new son-in-law is a handsome fellow."

"That's strange."
"Not at all. My daughter picked him out, and all I had to do was to pay for him."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

YOUR CHANCE
TO DO GOOD

Can Start Ailing Friends On The Road To Health By Recommending Rxall Mucu-Tone

You can do a lot of good, practical work if you will convince yourself of the merits of Rxall Mucu-Tone, and then recommend it to a few of your friends who are dangerously near the line of "chronic invalidism." Are there not many persons of your acquaintance whose constitutions are so feeble that they catch cold every time they are exposed to a draft? Then how quickly the little cold runs into a bad cold that hangs on for weeks and sometimes months, keeping the victim weak and half sick all the time; out-of-sorts and extremely melancholy most of the time.

We venture the assertion you have in your own family a circle of close friends several who are afflicted in just this way. They have catarrh.

In the head and nose and throat at first, but later the bronchial passages, then the lungs, the stomach or bowels.

Catarrh, as you know, is inflammation of the mucous membrane, the delicate inner skin of the entire body. If you close the pores of the outer skin death results. Likewise when inflammation closes the pores of a portion of the inner membrane disease follows, growing more and more serious as the inflammation extends.

"I do not much like the idea of having my name used in advertising a patent medicine, but I want all catarrh sufferers to know about this splendid remedy, Rxall Mucu-Tone."

"After suffering with nasal catarrh for five years—after spending hundreds of dollars on salves, sprays and snuffs without benefit—I obtained my first relief through Mucu-Tone. I am now finishing my fourth bottle and do not think I will have to take any more. I believe I am entirely cured. You may therefore refer to me if you wish."

808 Main St., Paterson, N. J.

Rxall Mucu-Tone works through the blood. It goes direct to the affected part, drawing out the poisons, healing the sore membranes and revitalizing the blood. Its action is prompt and positive. From the very first dose its healing, strengthening influence will be felt. Three or four weeks' treatment is guaranteed to effect a complete cure.

You need feel no hesitancy in recommending Mucu-Tone, because we sell every bottle with the clear, distinct understanding that we are to refund the purchase price if the purchaser is not more than satisfied. This is not a guarantee "for advertising purposes only." Far from it. We mean just what we say, which is that anyone who is not more than satisfied with Rxall Mucu-Tone can bring the empty bottle to us and get his money back, quickly, courteously and without red tape of any kind.

We believe in Mucu-Tone, and if it does not cure everyone to whom we recommend it we do not want his or her money.

Sold only at our store. Price, 50 cents and 89 cents per bottle. Mail orders filled.

THERE are some democrats in Jackson county who have learned that votes are what count on election day. Big claims and bluff and bluster never win a battle.

The democratic machine at Brownstown is still feeling mighty good over the result of the democratic primary. The Seymour crowd of bosses—well they are not so cheerful.

THEY say that all that saved Carl Wood was his conversion on the subsidy proposition. But just to think that he ever went wrong at all on that question and had to take it all back is embarrassing to his friends.

AND now it has been decided that James P. Applewhite, of Brownstown, is to have the solid vote of Jackson county for delegate to the democratic national convention. Seymour democrats are being shut out all around.

IT WAS talked on the streets today that either Billy Humes or Henry Price would be the democratic candidate for city treasurer. But that certainly must be a mistake for they certainly can not figure that sort of encouragement out of the votes they received in Seymour last Friday.

WATER RECEDING.

Though Much Damage has Been Done in the County.

Not since 1897 has this vicinity been visited by such a flood as the past two or three days. White river was not so high this time as then but it lacked but little of it. It reached its highest point Saturday night. All day Sunday it remained almost at a standstill, only falling about four inches in twelve hours. But Sunday night it began falling and has been going down steadily since. A thousand people or more went out to Rockford Sunday to view the river.

Muscatine was about as high Saturday as it ever gets. Mutton creek, White creek and other streams over the county reached high water mark. The damage to roads, bridges, fences and growing wheat in Jackson county will amount to thousands of dollars.

The railroads running into Seymour were almost out of business for two days. The B. & O. S. W. has managed to get a train through each way every day but with much difficulty. The track was overflowed near Medora and the grade weakened in different places between Sparksville and Tunnelton. The Pennsylvania had a big washout south of Chestnut Ridge and another south of Columbus and no trains got through from Saturday noon until late Saturday night, then they went by way of North Vernon, the washout near Columbus not being bridged over yet. The Southern Indiana has had no trains through since Friday evening and it will probably be two or three days yet before the repairs at Indian creek can be completed. All train service out of Seymour will necessarily be very irregular for several days.

Political Gossip.

James Branaman was nominated for trustee by the democrats of Owen township and Samuel Loudan was nominated for assessor.

Over in Hamilton township the democrats nominated Jason Bortoff for trustee and August Vornholt for assessor.

O. O. Swails' majority in Jackson county over Willard Voyles, with the Maumee precinct out, is 379. There was a mistake in the figures given Saturday.

Judge Marshall Haeberle will receive the entire vote of Bartholomew county for judge which is sufficient to nominate in that circuit.

Reports from the Eleventh district indicate that Fred Landis has the best of Major Steele again and will be re-nominated.

DIED.

FLICK—Dolph Flick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Flick, of Dudleytown, and a brother of Mrs. Henry Bobb, died at Chicago Saturday evening at 7:15 o'clock, aged 42 years. He had been sick for about six months of cancer of the stomach and Bright's disease. ## Phenomenal Shipment of Tobacco.

For the first time in the history of the tobacco business a shipment has been made in one order, to one concern, of a solid train of Manufactured Smoking Tobacco.

On March 1st, the Norfolk and Western Railroad started from Durham, N. C., a train consisting of 30 cars, all loaded with "Duke's Mixture," the entire lot of tobacco being a purchase made by Messrs. Sprague, Warner & Co., Wholesale Grocers, of Chicago, Ill.

Durham, where this tobacco is manufactured, is the famous tobacco town situated in the Golden Tobacco Belt of North Carolina. "Duke's Mixture" was named many years ago for Mr. J. B. Duke, the famous tobacco man, and its enormous growth has made it his pet, and the greatest care is exercised in its manufacture.

This shipment contains 2,880,000 single packages of tobacco, and would furnish each male adult in the United States with five smokes each, or one package to each of the soldiers of the standing armies of the United States, England, France, Germany, Italy, Austria and Russia.

This train went direct from Durham, N. C., to Chicago, Ill., and attracted much attention en-route, and arrived in Chicago March 9th.

TREE DAYS NAMED

Governor's Annual Arbor Day Proclamation Has Been Issued.

THE ARBOR DAY SPIRIT

Has Been Growing in This State in the Most Gratiating Manner, Say the Officials.

In the Minds of the Youth of Indiana This Spirit Has Been Constantly Cultivated.

Indianapolis, March 28.—Governor Durbin's annual Arbor day proclamation, designating the dates of state observance of the day, has been issued. Friday, April 22, and Friday, Oct. 21, are set apart for planting of trees, study of nature and similar pursuits, especially in the public schools.

State officials, especially Superintendent Cotton and Secretary Freeman, of the state board of forestry, are gratified at the growth of the Arbor day spirit among the school youth of the state. Secretary Freeman's annual report devotes some space to this, and from his office many suggestions have been made toward the observance of the day.

On the state forestry reservation at Henryville, Clark county, thousands of trees will be planted this year, on reclamation land. Work will begin on Arbor day, according to the plans of Secretary Freeman.

AN ENGROSSING TRIAL. Much Interest Manifested in Elkhart Bank Case.

Indianapolis, March 28.—Next to the flood situation the trial of Walter Brown, on the charge of complicity in wrecking the Indiana National bank at Elkhart, is the absorbing topic of interest here. Brown is well known to hundreds of Indianapolis citizens, principally politicians. In addition to this the prominence that has been given to the previous trials by the newspapers has interested all citizens.

The sudden stop put to the Broderick trial by the determination of the former president to change his plea gave another interest to the trial. Since both Broderick and Collins have acknowledged their guilt, people are wondering how Brown hopes to escape by fighting the case. But that he is determined to fight seems evident.

It is generally conceded that Brown, however, has the best chance of the three. It will be necessary to prove his criminal complicity and intention to defraud the bank. His attorneys will probably fight the suit on this line and they are hopeful of acquitting their man.

Swept Away by Flood. Indianapolis, March 28.—To the long list of disasters which have followed in the wake of the terrible flood which has held the city in its grasp for the last two days must be added at least one fatal accident. Nor is it certain that this record will stand. At least two more patients are being cared for at the City hospital hovering between life and death as the result of long exposure in the chilly water. The first victim of the flood is Mrs. Goldie Breneman. In seeking a place of safety from the waters which had almost engulfed her home the woman was thrown into the icy waters by the upsetting of the boat in which she was a passenger and after vainly trying to save herself by clinging to a fence until approaching assistance could reach her she lost her hold and was swept away to her death in the raging current.

Carroll County Woman's Plight. Flora, Ind., March 28.—Christena White, wife of John White of this place, who, believing her husband had secured a divorce, as he had made application some years ago, married George White a few months ago, is without any husband now. The first husband had withdrawn the suit for divorce, and Mrs. White discovered that instead of having one husband she had two. She has just been successful in obtaining a divorce from John White, but while so doing George learned of the situation and now refuses to re-marry the woman. Instead of the woman having two husbands a few weeks ago she has none now.

Attorney Was Acquitted. Swayzee, Ind., March 28.—David P. Long, a prominent attorney, has been acquitted in Justice Holman's court of the charge of firing his revolver at Earl Pence, a young farmer of Sims township. The encounter between the two men occurred on the streets of Swayzee some time ago. It was claimed by Long that Pence had threatened him and had followed him about the streets. Long armed himself and when Pence attempted to assault him he drew a revolver and fired. The filing of the charge against Long was the outgrowth of this affair.

BIG PIE FACTORIES.

METHODS BY WHICH THEY HANDLE THEIR IMMENSE PRODUCT.

Ten to Fifteen Thousand Pies Made and Baked in a Night—The Crusts, the Filling and the Frosting—Absolute Cleanliness in the Shops.

A visit to one of the largest pie constructing plants in a city would make the average housewife who prides herself in her baking green with envy. The maker of old fashioned domestic pies cannot easily conceive of a system by which a barrel of apples and a barrel of flour can, figuratively speaking, start at one end of a long bench and leave the other end a thousand or less finished pies, but this system is in use in all the large pie bakeries.

The baking force goes on duty at 10 o'clock at night. During the day girls have been paring and slicing apples and pumpkins, and the foreman has been spicing and sweetening the cooked fruit or mince, the custards and other prepared filling which have also been cooked by steam in large stone stew vats. When the bakers go on duty the filling is in place in front of the great dough board in tubs holding a half barrel each, and the stewed apples in full sized barrels. At one end of the bench is a great stack of flour, near which stands a pail of water into which a saucer of luting powder has been dumped. The dough mixer attacks this heap and makes in it a deep depression, into which the water is poured. The embankment of flour is rapidly turned into the water and stirred with the hands until a thick, pasty dough has been formed. This is shoveled along until a tall heap is formed at the mixer's right, and the kneader, a spiny young fellow, working with an instrument resembling a plasterer's trowel, cuts off large masses and rolls them until the mixing is completed and then chops them into chunks of suitable sizes for forming bottom crusts. The men beyond roll the bottom crusts and place them in the pans, which are arranged in large wooden trays, heaped one upon another in stacks as tall as a man. The stacks of trays are then hauled to the filler by means of a hook inserted in a ring in the truck at the bottom.

The pies, whether 10,000 or 15,000 a night are baked, are all filled by one man. With a long handled cup similar to that used in dipping milk from a can he stands over a tub of stewed pumpkin, mince or custard and fills pies so rapidly that all of one man's time is required to bring the trays to his side and that of another to take them away. He works like an automaton, a filled pie resulting from every drop and rise of his two hands. Nearly a hundred pies a minute look like an impossibility, but he sends them to the men who put on the top crusts and the meringues at that rate for many minutes at a stretch. He has, by actual test, put half a barrel of mince meat into pies within ten minutes.

The filled pies go into the big wooden trays to the men who cover them with the top crust or who put the meringue on with a conical shaped canvas bag open at the smaller end, out of which they squeeze the frosting on the fancy pies. The fancy pies and the plain ones do not come together again until they meet in the delivery wagon about 5 o'clock in the morning.

The top crust pies go to the draw-plate ovens and the pumpkins, custards, meringues and tarts to the older fashioned ovens, where they are handled with long, slender shovels. Out of the larger drawplate oven is pulled with a steel hook a plate of iron half an inch thick or more already heated. The thermometer in front of the oven shows a temperature of 550 degrees. As many pies as will lie on this plate—about 100 at a time—are placed on it and it is pushed into the oven. The hands of a dummy clock at the side are set to indicate the moment at which the baking will be finished. Another plate is then drawn out and filled, and the proceeding is repeated until the night's work is finished. The pies, after baking, go into wooden trays, as before, and are taken to the shipping room, where they are counted and loaded into the wagons for delivery.

About forty girls, boys and men by this system produce from 10,000 to 15,000 pies a day. They use about fifteen barrels of flour, six to ten barrels of apples, nine or ten half barrels of mince meat, nearly as much stewed pumpkin and perhaps half as much each of other fruits and custards, a barrel or more of lard, about two barrels of sugar and large quantities of spices.

Contrary to all popular notions on the subject, the wholesale manufacture of pies in the modern establishment is thoroughly cleanly. Workmen are not allowed to enter the work rooms in their street attire or to change their clothing there. The use of tobacco at all stages of the work is prohibited. Spitting on the floor or on or into anything else in the work rooms is expressly and emphatically forbidden. The walls are white, and the floors of concrete are dustless. Every scrap of anything that can sour is daily washed from the vessels used for filling, from the cooking vats, from the trays and from the benches, and they are all sterilized with steam or boiling water. The shortening, sweetening and spicing are carefully and accurately weighed in exact proportions. The baking is timed to a constant temperature, so that there is absolute uniformity, and all the mixing and flavoring, while done on a large scale, are so conducted as to insure a uniform quality.—New York Tribune.

CANCEROUS ULCERS

ROOTED IN THE BLOOD.

After the age of 45 or 50, when the vital powers are naturally weaker, it is noticed that a hurt of any kind heals slowly and often a very insignificant scratch or bruise becomes a bad ulcer or sore. At this time of life warty growths, moles and pimples that have been on the body almost from birth begin to inflame and fester, and before very long are large eating ulcers.

When a sore or ulcer is slow in healing then you may be sure something is radically wrong with your blood. Some old taint or poison that has been slumbering there for years, is beginning to assert itself, and breaks out and becomes a bad ulcer and perhaps the beginning of Cancer. These old sores are rooted in the blood, and while washes, soaps, salves, etc., keep the surface clean, they are not healing. A blood medicine to purify and strengthen the polluted blood and a tonic to build up the general system is what is needed, and S. S. S. is just such a remedy. No poison is so powerful and no germ so deadly that this great vegetable blood remedy cannot reach it, and ulcers of every kind quickly yield to its wonderful curative properties. If you have an old sore or ulcer, write us all about it, and medical advice or any information you may desire will be given by our physicians without charge. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

A CRAZY MAN

Found Eating an Egg, Shell and All.

Rational people thought it was awful as the shell had no food value, and was, of course, indigestible and injurious.

It is just as crazy for rational people to swallow a lot of cod liver oil, to get the medicinal curatives from it, as it was for the crazy man to eat the egg, shell and all.

Modern science has proved that the oil, or greasy part of cod liver oil, has no value whatever, and only upsets the stomach and retards recovery. It is the medicinal elements which are enveloped in the cod liver oil, of which there are about fifty, that represent all the tonic and curative power of the famous old remedy.

A preparation containing all the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but entirely free from oil or grease, must therefore, be the very best tonic reconstructor possible. Such is Vinol. It positively does contain every one of the fifty odd medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, fresh and sweet, just as the egg shell contains the nutritious food, and we throw away the useless, indigestible oil, just as you throw away the egg shell.

Knowing its wonderful medicinal and curative power, we guarantee to restore health and strength to the following or refund their money without question:

Run down, debilitated, tired, overworked people; old people, weak women, nursing mothers, puny, ailing children, convalescents, or to people suffering with hard colds, hacking coughs, incipient consumption and bronchitis. Vinol never fails to make rich, red blood and give strength to the weak and health to the sick. Try it on our guarantee. If it doesn't do you any good it won't cost you a cent. W. F. Peter Drug Co.

Golden Wedding.

Fifty years ago last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. William Hancock, of Memphis, the father and mother of George and Ed. Hancock and Mrs. O. S. Guernsey, of this city, were married. Their children took advantage of this anniversary and went in on them, giving them a very happy surprise. They were prepared to spread a splendid dinner. All the children, except Mrs. Albert Ruddell, of Charleston, Illinois, were present and their coming together proved a delightful family reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Hancock were married near Memphis and have lived there ever since excepting ten years that they lived near Tampico, in this county. Their children are Geo. L. Hancock, Mrs. O. S. Guernsey and E. L. Hancock, of Seymour, Dr. C. F. C. Hancock, of Jeffersonville, Mrs. J. E. Dunlavy, of Memphis, and Mrs. Albert Ruddell, of Charleston, Ill. All the Seymour relatives were there Saturday.

VALUABLE OBJECT LESSON

Marion County Republicans Set an Example in Harmony.
Indianapolis, March 28.—Marion county Republicans have just given an object lesson to their own party workers here and to the Democrats as well which will do a world of good. Ever since Col. Smith won out in the race for county chairman the Democrats have been crowing that his success meant a great split in the party. It was in the demonstration of the fact that the contrary is true that the object lesson was given. The Wayne township convention to select township candidates was held on Saturday.
At that meeting it was shown in the nominations made that the only thing the party workers are taking into consideration is the selection of good men as candidates. The ticket selected is a very strong one. The best feature of the whole convention was that the greatest unanimity of feeling was manifested. The Democrats have been saying that members of the old Bookwater following are preparing to bolt the ticket and work for the Democratic nominees. Instead of doing this members of the old crowd in the township went to the convention and took an active part in the proceedings.
The same course is to be pursued all over the county and in other townships which will name candidates very soon the fact that Bookwater Republicans and their former opponents are working together will be demonstrated. Chairman Smith has conducted things so far in a manner that has satisfied all classes of Republicans. He has promised that exact justice and fairness shall be his sole guide and as he has demonstrated his determination to live up to this, even those disgruntled party workers who have inclined to hold back have changed their opinions and are now out working to see that a good county ticket is named.

The flood is the great topic of discussion here although it is generally thought that the worst is over. Both the river and Fall creek have been steadily falling and there is little danger of another inundation. In the three days that the flood lasted, however, enough damage has been done to satisfy everyone for years to come.
It will be impossible ever to estimate the entire loss, but it probably will reach to a half million dollars. Pavement materials that cost in the neighborhood of $150,000 were torn up. There is an interesting question raised as to who will have to bear this loss. Citizens who had been paying for the

"DO IT TO-DAY."

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'til tomorrow what you can do today," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks.
Take some reliable remedy for IT-TO-DAY—and let that remedy be Dr. Boschee's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

streets under the Barrett law say they will not do so and the city will not assume the expense of replacing torn up streets. The guarantee by the paving companies has not expired on the streets which were damaged the most and they probably will have to make repairs. But people whose homes were flooded will be the ones to suffer and they can have no relief from anyone. The water got into thousands of homes, ruining carpets and furniture. This loss will probably run into the hundreds of thousands of dollars while the sums which will be required to repair houses and barns and put lawns into good shape is too large to estimate.

The approaching state and national Prohibition conventions have caused local workers in the cause of temperance reform to become quite active.
The state convention will be held early next month while the national gathering is booked to open June 29.
The committee in charge of the arrangements for the state gathering has selected the Hotel English for the headquarters during that meeting and rooms have already been engaged for scores of prominent Prohibition workers who will be here to assist in the selection of the state ticket. The selection of the English is something of a departure for the Prohibitionists.
Usually their committee meetings have been held at the Lorraine hotel.
That hostility was selected because it had no barroom in connection. Recently, however, a bar has been started and the managers thought that if it was necessary to go to a hotel having a bar they might as well take one of the best. No great preparations for the national convention will be made until after the state gathering.
At that time committees to make arrangements for the national gathering will be named and the work will be taken up.

River on Fire.
Berea, O., March 28.—A main pipe of the Standard Oil company which crosses the river near here, burst last evening and caught fire. The current carried the fire on down the stream for several miles, the flames increasing in places as the supply of oil became greater. At times the blaze was spectacular. The greater portion of the river was but thinly coated with the oil and at no time was there any danger to property along the river.

Killed in Central Park.
New York, March 28.—Four persons in an automobile, owned and driven by Jerome Yeager, were thrown out while the car was swinging around a sharp curve in Central park Sunday. Miss Florence Maas, of the Hotel Endicott, was picked up unconscious and died soon after being taken home.

Looking for Swindler.
Laporte, Ind., March 28.—Carl F.
Punskey, a shoe dealer, several days ago indorsed a $90 check for a man claiming to be Charles A. Guthman, head of the firm of Guthman, Carpenter & Telling. The draft was dishonored.

Reassuring.
"But how can I be sure," said the beautiful bride, "that you do not want me merely for my money?"
"Darling," replied the duke, "if I can have you I shall never worry about money any more."—Chicago Record-Herald.

WEEK IN CONGRESS

In the House the Sundry Civil Bill Has the Right-of-Way.

WILL TAKE ALL WEEK

The Disposition of This Measure Will Bring Out No End of Congressional Oratory.

In the Senate the Postoffice Bill Received Its First Attention Today.

Washington, March 28.—The sundry civil bill has the right-of-way in the house this week and Chairman Hemenway believes that it will require the whole week to dispose of the measure. Should this not be the case two special orders have been set to follow it—pension bills and the omnibus claims bill. The impeachment of Judge Charles Swayne is now properly before the house and is a matter of the highest privilege. Mr.
Palmer, in charge of this case, says that he will not press it during consideration of the sundry bill but he will call up the case at the conclusion of that measure. While minority views are to be filed in this suit by Representative Gillett, of California, it is expected that a decision in the house can be reached without prolonged discussion.

In the senate the postoffice bill received its first attention
at the hands of the committee on postoffices today, and there will be an effort to report it by Tuesday or Wednesday. If the District of Columbia bill is passed before the postoffice bill is ready for consideration the conference report on the army appropriation bill or the bill authorizing a new department building in Washington may be made to serve the purpose of holding off the pure food bill. Senator Hepburn announces his intention to call up the food bill, if possible, and says he will use his best efforts to secure its passage.

THIRTEENTH VICTIM

Race War at St. Charles Now Thought to be Over.

Dewitt, Ark., March 28.—Two more negroes have been killed in the clash between whites and blacks at St.
Charles, fifteen miles from here in Arkansas county. This brings the total of dead negroes up to thirteen, all of them being killed within the past week.

The last two negroes killed were the Griffin brothers, Henry and Walter, who were the cause of the trouble.
The negroes were reported to have escaped, but it is known that they are dead and it is believed that they were killed Sunday.

Owing to the remoteness of St.
Charles, and to the fact that the news of the result of the riot is not given out freely, it is difficult to obtain details, but there is no doubt of the authenticity of the report with reference to the death of the Griffins.

In the St. Charles neighborhood the negroes largely outnumber the whites and trouble has been brewing for a long time and it is said the negroes for the past two years have been getting insolent and belligerent. It is now believed that the leaders of the unruly element have been killed and that further trouble will be averted.

Saturday was election day and usually on such a day St. Charles is crowded with negroes, but during the entire day only two negroes were seen in the town and these two appeared in the morning and stayed in the village but a short time. Near St.
Charles the negroes are quiet and are attending strictly to their work. The trouble originated last Monday when the two Griffins met two white men, brothers, named Searcy. The Searcys who are fishermen, and the Griffins had an altercation a few days before and when they met the trouble was renewed. One of the negroes armed himself with the leg of a chair and with his brother assaulted the white men, beating them so severely that one is now on the verge of death and the other is in a critical condition. In an effort to arrest the Griffins eleven negroes have been killed.

The death of the two Griffins makes the death list number thirteen.

Rathbone Files an Appeal.
Washington, March 28.—Senator Platt, of Connecticut, chairman of the senate committee on relations with Cuba, has received from Maj. E. G.
Rathbone an appeal for a review of his case by congress. He has on file with Senator Platt's committee a request for an investigation of the circumstances under which he was convicted of complicity in the Cuban postal frauds but no action ever since has been taken in the matter. Maj.
Rathbone bases his claim for an investigation on his "right to be heard as an American citizen."

Morales in the Ascendant.
Washington, March 28.—Information received at the navy department from Admiral Wise at Guantanamo indicates that the Morales government is making headway in the revolutionary contest in San Domingo, the admiral reporting that it is now in possession of all the ports of the island except the small one of Monte Cristi on the north coast.
